VOL. XVIII

IOLA, ALLEN COUNTY, KANSAS, FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 1884.

NO. 18

Dr. OTTERBOURG,
Proprietor and Surgeon in Chief.
OF THE
KANSAS CITY MEDICAL DISPENSARY, ON ACCOUNT OF HIS
Large Practice in Allen County,
WILL MAKE HIS THIRD VISIT TO IOLA
THURSDAY, MAY 15.
AND WILL REMAIN ONE DAY ONLY AT THE PENNSYLVANIA CENTRAL HOTEL.
(His immense practice at the Dispensary prevents his remaining longer.)
Where he can be consulted on the
THROAT and LUNGS, CATARRH, KIDNEY and BLADDER
AND FEMALE DISEASES.
AS WELL AS ALL NERVOUS AND CHRONIC CASES.

DR. OTTERBOURG
Has discovered the greatest cure in the world for weakness of the back and limbs, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, insomnia, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, shivering, trembling, dimness of sight or giddiness, diseases of the heart, head, throat, nose or skin, adoptions of youth, and secret practices, more fatal to the victims than the signs of the Syrens to the mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most radiant hopes and anticipations, rendering happy marriages impossible.
Those who are suffering from evil practices which destroy their mental and physical systems, causing
NERVOUS DEBILITY,
The symptoms of which are a dull, distressed mind, which unites them for performing their business and social duties, makes happy marriages impossible, distresses the action of the heart, lessens the vigor of the liver, lungs, stomach or bowels—those terrible disorders arising from solitary habits of youth and secret practices, more fatal to the victims than the signs of the Syrens to the mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most radiant hopes and anticipations, rendering happy marriages impossible.
Those who are suffering from evil practices which destroy their mental and physical systems, causing
YOUNG MEN
Who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of exalted talent and brilliant intellect, to achieve the living life—may call with full confidence.
MARRIAGE.
Married persons, or those contemplating marriage, aware of physical weakness, loss of procreative power, impotency, or any other disease, should consult Dr. Otterbourg, who will place himself under the care of Dr. Otterbourg may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman and confidently rely on his skill as a physician.
ORGANIC WEAKNESS
Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distressing affliction which renders life a burden and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victim for improper indulgence. Young people are apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands this subject will deny that prevention is lost sooner by pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and distressing symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the physical and mental functions weakened. Loss of procreative power, nervous irritability, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility, wasting of the frame, cough, consumption and death.
A CURE WARRANTED.
Persons ruined in health by unbridled pretensions who keep them trilling month after month, taking poisonous compounds, should apply immediately.
DISEASES OF WOMEN
Have always been a special study with Dr. Otterbourg. No department of medicine requires more knowledge, patience and tact than this and none calls for more delicacy, candor or kindness. He has the tact of ascertaining the origin and seat of disease and can refer to thousands of patients whom he has cured after they have been treated by the most eminent gynecologists in vain. Not only has he unrivaled means of diagnosing, but his treatment is original, mild, safe and thoroughly reliable. He always gives relief, and whenever cure is practicable he restores the patient to health. Ladies are kept ignorant of their organization that they do not understand the value of many of their pains and other symptoms, and often neglect themselves until the complaint has become well established. They should consult him when he visits Iola, and even if he is not in Iola, they should write him, and he will send them a full and complete treatise on the subject of women's diseases, and he will send them a full and complete treatise on the subject of women's diseases, and he will send them a full and complete treatise on the subject of women's diseases.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.
Dr. Otterbourg addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, uniting them for performing their business and social duties, makes happy marriages impossible, distresses the action of the heart, lessens the vigor of the liver, lungs, stomach or bowels—those terrible disorders arising from solitary habits of youth and secret practices, more fatal to the victims than the signs of the Syrens to the mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most radiant hopes and anticipations, rendering happy marriages impossible.

READ Inasmuch as the Doctor is necessarily called out of the city quite often, visiting his many patients, and parties coming in his absence to see him are put to needless expense and money in remaining in the city for that purpose, in preference to seeing him, it would be to their interest and advantage to write him previous to starting, so that he can arrange to see them as well as furnish them with a printed guide to the Dispensary, thereby relieving embarrassment in acquiring and searching for his location.
Consultation Free—Charges moderate and within the reach of all who need Scientific Medical treatment. Those who reside at a distance and cannot see him will receive prompt attention through the mail by simply sending their symptoms, with postage.
Send for "Medical Adviser"—sent free.

Editorial Notes.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION
A Delegate Convention of the Republican Electors of Allen County will be held at the court house in Iola on Saturday, April 19th at 11 o'clock a.m. for electing four delegates and four alternates to attend the Republican State Convention, which assemblies at Topeka, April 29, 1884, for choosing four delegates and four alternates to attend the National Convention at Chicago, for placing candidates in nomination for President and Vice-President. Also to elect four delegates and four alternates to attend the Congressional Convention at Olathe, April 24, 1884, for choosing four delegates and four alternates to attend the Republican National Convention at Chicago, for placing candidates in nomination for President and Vice-President.
The different townships will be entitled to representation as follows: Geneva, 4; Deer Creek, 4; Osage, 2; Marmon, 4; Elm, 4; Iola, 4; Humboldt, 2; Salem, 2; Elmora, 4; Cottage Grove, 4. It is recommended that delegates and alternates be elected from the various townships on Tuesday, April 15, 1884, at the usual time and places of voting, or at such places as township committees may designate.

CHARLES READE, the noted English novelist, died last Friday.

The Senate has been discussing the postal telegraph bill in good earnest, and it begins to look like something in that line might be accomplished.

The Butler county relief corn was sold in Cincinnati last Saturday, at prices ranging two or three cents above market rate. The entire train brought $7,000.

Some one has found out that Robert Lincoln bears no resemblance to his father "except from his eyes up." If he is all right from his eyes up, there need be few questions about the rest of him.

THEODORE A. HURD, of Leavenworth, has been appointed to the place on the Supreme bench made vacant by the resignation of Judge Brewer. The appointment is regarded as a very creditable one.

J. W. RICHARDSON has sold the Neosho Falls Post to Hoxeland, Hamm & Co. Richardson made a good price for the Post, and we hope his wishes may fall in pleasant places. We wish the new firm success.

THE EARL OF DUMFRIES, in a paper in the Nineteenth Century, pronounced the United States Senate "the strongest, most efficient and the most capable body in the world."—Ex.

Somebody gave the Earl a quarter of a dollar and charged it to us.
In the final vote on the Fitz John Porter bill all of the union soldiers in the Senate voted against his re-instatement while all the ex-confederates voted in favor of it. This alone ought to point out the road to justice. The bill has not yet been called up in the House.

BERDETT: "No, young man, it doesn't hurt you a particle to sow your wild oats. Go ahead and sow as you wish. But it's the gathering in of the crop that will make you howl. And you have to gather it, too. If you don't it gathers you in, and one is a great deal worse than the other."

It is worth notice that three of the great English novelists are simultaneously contributing to the Harper periodicals: Charles Reade, with "A Perilous Secret," to the Bazar; Wilkie Collins, with "I Say No," to the Weekly; and William Black, with "Judith Shakespeare," to the Magazine.

GEN. GEO. W. DEITZLER, who was Colonel of the first regiment of Kansas volunteers, died at Tucson, Arizona, last Friday. He was for many years a resident of this State, being intimately associated during its early struggles with James H. Lane, Judge Thacher, Martin F. Conway, M. J. Parrott, A. C. and D. W. Wilder, Albert L. Lee, Thomas Osborn and others.

We understand that our leonine friend (Gen. J. H. Rice, of Fort Scott, will probably be named as one of the delegates to the Chicago convention, from the State at large, and we sincerely hope the honor will be conferred upon him. The General has served faithfully in the ranks for seventeen years, and has never asked for anything. The office of delegate to a national convention is rather an expensive honor, but if the General is willing to accept it, the State would do herself credit by sending him. We nominate General Rice.

It is said that the bottom is already out of the boom that has been given the Coeur d'Alene gold fields of Idaho. The excitement began in the middle of winter and 10,000 prospectors and speculators have been squatting in the snow ever since, waiting for spring to open. But it has already been discovered that the hubbub has all been created by a few sharp who "salted" some old prospect holes and sold them at fabulous figures. This fable teaches that he who owns a good farm in Kansas and takes good care of it, is more to be envied than he who seeks after a gold mine.

CONGRESS has at last taken hold of the Indian question by the right end. The Senate passed a bill last week which is intended to break down the reservation system, simply granting to each Indian in severally a tract of land that he is to have, hold and cultivate to the best of his ability. If the House is wise enough to concur with the Senate, the Indian problem will have been solved.

No special attention seems hitherto to have been called to the remarkable portraits of American statesmen that have recently been appearing in Harper's. They have included so far full-page portraits of Washington, the elder Adams, Jefferson, Madison and Alexander Hamilton, besides several smaller portraits; for the May number we are promised Monroe, Henry Clay, and Rufus King; and Mr. Krull, the distinguished engraver who has done most of these, is understood to be busy upon the younger Adams, Jackson, Calhoun, Webster and others. The portrait of Buchanan in the January number may also be mentioned. Many of these have been engraved from original paintings or drawings not before reproduced, and the result is likely to be an American portrait gallery fifty presented in the highest style of the especially American art of wood-engraving.

The Blair educational bill passed the Senate last week. Originally the bill provided for the distribution of $105,000,000 among the States and Territories, proportioned according to the statistics of illiteracy furnished by the census of 1880. Senator Hoar's amendment, adopted, provided that the whole amount appropriated shall be $77,000,000; the first year, $7,000,000 the second $10,000,000, the third $11,000,000, and then until the expiration of the eighth year, $2,000,000 less annually, when the appropriations shall cease. The money thus appropriated shall not be devoted or donated to sectarian schools according to Senator Sherman's amendment, adopted; and according to Senator Logan's amendment, adopted, the fund thus appropriated shall be used only for common school purposes, or instruction in common school studies, not normal instruction, no matter how little any State may need federal assistance. The bill has got to run the gauntlet of the House, and it is hardly likely to become a law this year. If passed the amount received by Kansas would be $500,000.

By the courtesy of Hon. E. H. Funt we are in receipt of Mr. Anderson's bill "to provide for the adjustment of land grants made by Congress to aid in the construction of railroads within the State of Kansas." The bill is just such an one as ought by all means to be passed, as it would forever settle our disputes and would render entire justice to all parties. If it were passed there would be no further difficulty about getting the cases into court, for it makes it the duty of the Attorney-General to bring suit at once, and carry it up to the Supreme Court if necessary, to test the question of title. In case the patents are set aside, the purchasers are protected according to Section 4, as quoted last week. Section 5 also protects actual settlers upon forfeited lands in their right of homestead or pre-emption, which is of course just and proper. This provision would cut a very small figure in Allen county, however, as only a very small fraction of the railroad lands remain unsold. Lands which have once been transferred by the railroad company are guaranteed to the purchaser by Section 4. Taken all together the bill is probably as good a one as could be framed and it is earnestly to be hoped that Congress will pass it without delay.

BLAINE OF MAINE.
It looks now that if the politicians leave "hands off" a little while longer, the people will "fix" a delegation at Chicago that will put Blaine in on the first ballot. There is no doubt that he is the first choice of the vast majority of Republicans—political managers, perhaps, excepted—all over the country. In the face of this overwhelming popular demand the cry of the machine that he "can't be elected" is inconsistent. "What Republican can be elected, if not one with the prestige and popularity of Blaine? Who can be elected if not one who has the hearts of the people as no other American has? The gauge of 'availability' is the will of the people. The enthusiasm of a Blaine campaign, in our opinion, would overbalance and overwhelm the factional opposition that is claimed would defeat him. There is a deep and widespread feeling that he represents the American spirit more fully than any other man in the party. There is a very general impression that if the "brag and bluster" policy inaugurated by him at the beginning of the Garfield administration had been carried out, instead of the "moderation" of Frelinghuysen, America would to-day hold her head a little higher among the nations and not "bend the pregnant hinges of the knee" at every fresh insult. Ohio is the key of the political situation and Ohio is wild for Blaine. Such a key-note would be struck there in October that the chorus in November would be irresistible. New York would join it even with Conkling sulking in his tent. We believe there are several Republicans who could carry the election of '84 upon the issues that will then be joined, but none so easily and triumphantly as Blaine of Maine.

GUBERNATORIAL VIEWS.
Although not taking an active part in the campaign at the time, one of our severest political disappointments was the failure of the Republicans two years ago, to make Judge S. O. Thacher their candidate for Governor. There were reasons then that made his nomination almost necessary, and no one doubts that if nominated he would have carried the State by the old-time majority. To our mind the same reasons exist now for his nomination at the coming convention, and there is just as little doubt that he would be triumphantly elected. We have always wanted to see Judge Thacher in politics for the reason that no man in Kansas would reflect greater credit on the State. A fitting beginning to this political career would be his elevation to the gubernatorial chair, and we think the people owe it to themselves to place him there. They cannot find a man who will fill that high position with more distinguished ability, with greater courtesy and dignity or with more even handed justice and purity. We are aware that it is a long time yet until the convention is held, but this is a fast age we live in, and the above is made necessary by the question already often asked us as to our gubernatorial preferences.

In speaking thus of Judge Thacher we do not forget that a most able and honorable gentleman, Col. John A. Martin, of Atchison, will also be a candidate before the convention for the same office, and we are free to say that if we were not for Thacher we would be for Martin. While not personally acquainted with the latter, the Atchison Champion, of which he is editor, comes regularly to our table and is one of our most valued exchanges, testifying each week to the honesty, ability and judgment of the man at its head. No one doubts that Col. Martin would make a most creditable executive, and we expect sometime to see him in that position. But for a number of reasons which will develop as the canvass proceeds, the nomination this fall rightfully belongs to Judge Thacher and we hope and expect that he will receive it.

POLITICAL GRAVES.
The Ottawa Herald thinks that the Register forgot their claim that it took occasion two or three weeks ago to remark that the Republican party had no graves. "What party in the history of the country," queries the Herald, "can point to a grave more bleak, cold and comfortless than that of Rufus B. Hayes?" We would like to ask in reply what the Herald can allege against Mr. Hayes, or what principle of the Republican party lies buried with him? The reply will probably be that he stole the Presidency. If he did, then he was aided and abetted by Democrats. The Electoral Commission seated him. The Electoral Commission was a Democratic idea. It was created by Democratic votes, and the only reason it did not seat Tilden, as they expected it to, was because David Davis was a little more honest than they took him to be. And so far as we know neither the Republican party nor the country has any reason to regret Mr. Hayes' administration. His conciliatory policy toward the Southern States, brought about a better feeling between the two sections than had existed since the war, while at the same time the ringing votes with which he met the infamous attempts of the Brigadiers to coerce the government, showed that he had plenty of true grit. The Republican party has no reason to shed tears over the political grave of Mr. Hayes.

The Herald asks again, "Where are the head stones that mark the last political resting places of such leaders as Belknap, Pomeroy, Lapham, and hundreds of others?" We reply that those head stones are the proudest monuments the Republican party could have, for they show that the party has virtue enough and strength enough to hunt out the rascals in its own ranks and drive them to their punishment. History shows no parallel of a party which has so persistently and consistently purged itself.

But when we spoke of political graves in the article which the Herald criticizes, we referred to principles and not to men, and we repeat now that the Republican party has no graves wherein are buried dead issues, exploded theories or disgraced doctrines. Every position taken by the Republican party for twenty-five years has been maintained and ratified by the people. Can the Herald point us an exception or can it say the same for the Democratic party?
